

and

U.S. Army

Date Created...

SUR

The USPHS must submit a report on the progress of its efforts to the Health and Environment Policy Committee of the USPHS within 60 days of the publication of the final order. If the committee is not satisfied with the progress, the USPHS will submit a further report 90 days from the date of the report to the committee. This application will be reviewed for publication 60 days from the filing date of 90 days from the date of the report to the committee. If the committee is not satisfied with the progress, the USPHS will submit a further report 90 days from the date of the report to the committee. If the committee is not satisfied with the progress, the USPHS will submit a further report 90 days from the date of the report to the committee.